

Do not vote to liberalize the media ownership rules. There is too much concentration already and more concentration will in no way serve the public interest. Keep the present rules in place.